

SUNIL KUMAR GIRI

DATABASE DEVELOPER

ABOUT ME

Currently pursuing my CSIT 6th semester at Tribhuvan University, I am an aspiring frontend developer passionate about database management. Through my studies, I have built a solid foundation in programming, web development, and database query. I am seeking an internship opportunity to apply my academic knowledge in a real-world setting, gain hands-on experience, and collaborate in a fast-paced team environment. Eager to enhance my skills, I am committed to growing as a frontend, database developer and contributing effectively to innovative projects.
